

Constitution

Article 1: Name of the Society

1.1 The name of the Society shall be DKIT Fashion Society, hereinafter referred to as 'Fashion society'.

1.2 The Society exists as a constituent part of the DKIT and is therefore subject to all relevant DKIT society policies and rules.

Article 2: Alliances/Affiliations with External bodies.

2.1 Society is not aligned and/or affiliated with any external bodies

Article 3: Aims of the Society

3.1 The aims of the society will be:

1. To create a community for students interested in fashion, personal style, and self-expression.
2. To host events such as fashion styling workshops, thrift/vintage swaps, and fun uplifting creative events
3. To promote sustainable fashion practices and encourage creativity and self-expression
4. To provide opportunities for students to network and get more in touch with their creativity

Article 4: Membership

4.1 All current students of the DKIT shall be eligible to become full members of the Society, provided they comply with any regulations that may apply.

4.2 Any eligible person shall become a member of the Society upon registering with the Society on Societies' Day or via the official Society registration platform.

4.3 Students may be prohibited from being members if they are subject to a sanction that prohibits them from membership.

Article 5: The Committee

5.1 The business and operations of the Society shall be managed by a Committee composed of elected members, as specified below.

5.2 All members of the Committee must first be full members of the Society.

5.2.1 Members who have been subject to sanctions prohibiting them from holding a Committee position are ineligible to stand for election or serve as a Committee member.

5.3 The Committee shall consist of the core positions, additional specified committee members, and ordinary committee members.

5.3.1 Core positions: The Auditor, Treasurer and Secretary. These three positions are mandatory and must be filled at all times.

5.3.2 Additional Committee members may be elected as needed (e.g., Social Media Officer, Events Coordinator, etc.), subject to the approval of the full Committee.

5.3.3 Ordinary Committee members may be elected to assist in the running of the Society and contribute to specific projects or events.

5.4 The Auditor

The Auditor of the Society shall have overall responsibility for the affairs of the Society and shall chair all meetings of the Society, unless otherwise provided for in this Constitution. The Auditor shall ensure that all Society activities are conducted in accordance with this Constitution and DKIT's policies.

5.4.3 Treasurer

The Treasurer shall be responsible for managing the finances of the Society, including preparing financial reports, overseeing expenditure, and ensuring that all financial transactions are recorded in accordance with the Society's budget.

5.4.4 Secretary

The Secretary shall maintain the records of the Society, including meeting minutes, membership lists, and official correspondence. The Secretary shall also be responsible for sending out notices of meetings and events.

5.5 Elections for Committee positions shall take place annually at the AGM, with all full members of the Society eligible to stand for election and vote.

5.5.1 A Committee member may be removed from their position through a vote of no confidence at an EGM, provided that a quorum is present and that the motion is supported by two-thirds of the members in attendance

Article 6: Meetings

6.1 An AGM shall be held annually to review the activities of the Society, elect Committee members, and address any other business. The date of the AGM shall be set by the Committee, and all members must be notified at least one week in advance.

6.2 An EGM (Extraordinary General Meeting) may be called by the Committee or upon request by at least one-quarter of the full membership. The purpose of the EGM shall be to discuss urgent matters that cannot wait until the AGM.

6.3 A quorum for an AGM or EGM shall consist of at least one-third of the full membership or 10 members, whichever is greater.

6.4 Meetings of the Committee shall be held at least 2 times or fortnightly during each academic term. All members of the Committee shall be entitled to attend and vote at such meetings.

6.5 Meetings may also be convened at the request of 3 or 50% of the Committee, whichever is the larger number, with at least the minimum notice period

6.6 All Committee members must be notified by their chosen email and by other means as agreed.

6.7 Committee members that fail to attend 3 Committee meetings, without apologies accepted by the Committee, shall be deemed to have resigned.

Article 7: Amendments to the Constitution

7.1 Any member may propose an amendment to the Constitution. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Committee and shall be discussed at the AGM or EGM.

7.2 Amendments to the Constitution may be made by a two-thirds majority vote at an AGM or EGM, provided a quorum is present.

Article 8 Resignations from the Committee

8.1 The resignation of any member of the Committee shall be instituted by a letter of resignation to the Secretary of the Society.

8.1.1 In the case of the resignation of the Secretary, resignation may be instituted by a letter of resignation to the Auditor.

8.2 In the case of resignation during term time, the resigning Committee member must handover all Society property, passwords and handover documents to the committee and, where practical, assist with the induction of their replacement.

Article 9: Documents Handover

9.1 Each outgoing officer of the Committee must present Handover Documents at the end of their term detailing the specific roles and responsibilities of their office, and the person(s) with whom they conducted the business of the Society, in order to assist the incoming officer with their development of the Society.

Article 10 Financial Management

10.1 The finances of the Society shall be managed by the Auditor and Treasurer of the Society.

10.1.1 This Constitution also provides for the possibility of an Assistant Treasurer if the Society feels it is necessary.

10.2 It is the responsibility of the Treasurer to ensure that all monies received from Dundalk Institute of Technology and sponsors are receipted.

10.3 No Society Member may use their membership for personal financial gain. Failure to adhere to this article shall result in disciplinary action with Dundalk Institute Of Technology.

Article 11 Disciplinary Action

11.1 The Committee and all members of the Society shall comply with Dundalk Institute of Technology's disciplinary, grievance, bullying and harassment procedures, as well as all other relevant procedures of the Dundalk Institute of Technology and the Sports and Society Office, as may be updated or amended from time to time. This includes adherence to the Societies Complaints Procedure.

11.1.1 Committee members who bring the Society into disrepute may be removed by the Committee, in accordance with the Societies Complaints Procedure. Any such decision is subject to approval among its Committee Members before it takes effect.

11.1.2 Society members who bring the Society into disrepute may be removed from the membership list by a vote of the Committee, in accordance with the Societies Complaints Procedure. Any such decision is subject to approval from the DKIT Society Office before it takes effect.

11.2 The following are examples of actions that may be considered breaches of discipline (though this list is not exhaustive):

- (i) Serious or persistent breaches of Health and Safety regulations.
- (ii) Bringing the name of the Society into disrepute, whether through public behaviour or actions that damage the reputation of the Society.
- (iii) Acting against the aims and/or objectives of the Society as outlined in this Constitution.
- (iv) Misappropriation or misuse of any funds related to the Society, including financial resources.
- (v) Discrimination, harassment, or any form of inappropriate conduct in relation to fellow members or any other individual associated with Dundalk Institute of Technology.
- (vi) Gross misconduct, as determined by DKIT's regulations.
- (vii) Breaches of any policies or procedures of the DKIT's regulations, including those specific to student societies.

Article 12: Dissolution of the Society

12.1 On dissolution of the Society, all the Societies assets, including intellectual property and virtual rights, shall become the property of Dundalk Institute Of Technology. 12.2 The Society may be dissolved if:

(i) If the Society remains in abeyance for two consecutive years it will be deemed to be dissolved.

(ii) Failure to elect three core committee members before the following September

(iii) Failure to have a table at Societies Day the following September.

(iv) If the Society remains in abeyance for two consecutive years it will be deemed to be dissolved.

Dundalk Institution Of Technology - DUC/DKIT Fashion Society